

All Med has recently made some upgrades to our website in order to serve you better. These changes will be implemented beginning on February 5th 2016.

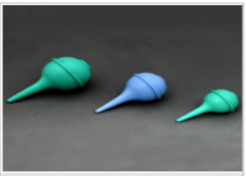

Narrowing Product Searches: Products can now be filtered through Product Category, Sub Category, Advanced Options, and Manufacturer. Selecting a Sub category will show advanced options, enabling a pin point selection of the exact product needed.

Product Description Revamp: Every All Med product description has been updated, making for easier and more efficient item navigation. Additionally, product categories have been reviewed and products have been realigned to appear in the appropriate section

Search Results: Search results are now defaulted to gallery viewing sorted by product description. This allows for easier searching and more results per page. If it is preferred to view a listing of items, that option is still available. There is also the option to sort by All Med SKU or Product Category.
